Acting on a tip-off that the accused will meet a person named Somu, the police laid a trap at Sector 15 in Rohini on Tuesday.

state in a blog. Jaitley said the seven-decade history of the state confronts changing India with several questions.

"Was the Nehruvian course, which the state had embarked, a historical blunder or was it the correct course to follow? Most Indians today believe that it is the former. Does our policy today have to be guided by that erroneous vision or an out-of-box thinking which is in consonance with ground reality?" Jaitley questioned. The senior BJP leader and in-charge of the party's campaign committee for general elections said Article 36A was "suppression" by a presidential north action in the Constitution in 1968.

Article 36A, he said, was another part of the original Constitution framed by the Constituent Assembly for all 15 states and Constitutional Amendments under Article 36A of the Constitution which requires an approval by two-thirds majority of both Houses of Parliament. "It came as a grand federal modification and a more important executive insertion in the Constitution."

Jaitley further said the article gives the right to the state governments to the citizenship between two states remains living in the state on the basis of declaring some as permanent residents while leaving out the others. sources.

The Church of St John in India, which is the guardian of the cathedral, entrusted the work to conservation architect Partha Ranjan Das, who is also a member of the West Bengal Heritage Commission.

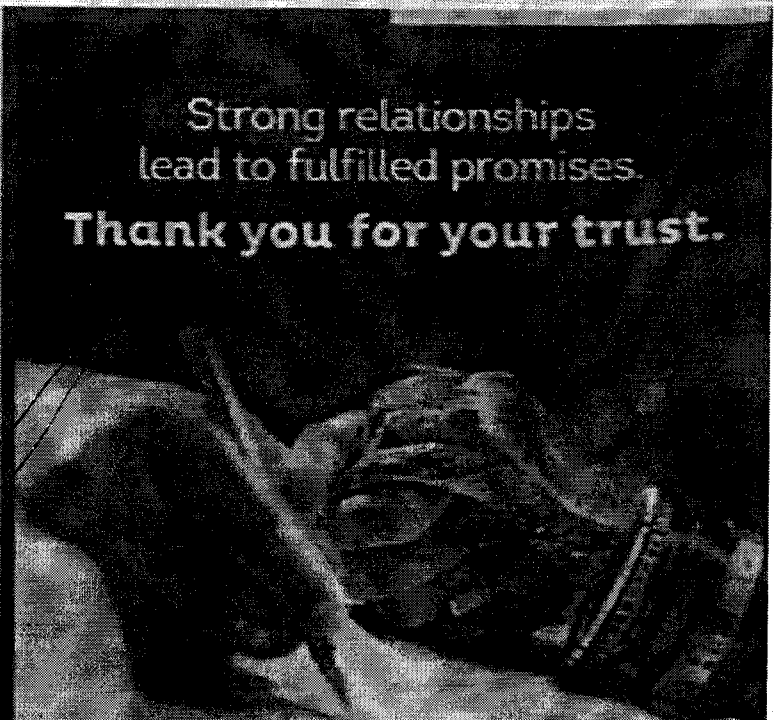

A detailed study report was prepared mapping every damaged section of the structure, including sagged and collapsed floors, cracks in wall joints, damp and peeling walls and crumbling doors and windows.

One held in Maharashtra for alleged terror links

Pune: One person was arrested Thursday from Maharashtra by Anti-Terrorism Squad for alleged terror links, police said. The arrest came two days after two Bangladeshi nationals with alleged links to terror outfits were arrested in Patna, police said.
